General Correspondence

Healton, I. T. Dec. 12.—A real answer to questions in this section and a full page is a welcome addition. We have a good crop now after two months of hot dry weather.

Two Boyd Horses at Ardmore in good condition were sold at $100 each day.

Mrs. James Clegg and family had Armistice Thanksgiving.

A. S. Ragsdale of Ardmore was here yesterday.

The sun is still scorching but we will still have our living crops.

Mr. Gistrap has moved to Tulsa.

R. A. Cray has moved into town.

C. C. Germany has moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Gladys, and will care for the training horses.

Mr. and Mrs. Kresser and children from New York State are en route to the country of their birth.

The little ones are awaiting Christ mass with much expectation. May they have a happy, joyous one.

There is talk of a Christmas tree here if the weather will permit.

J. A. Gordon, J. W. Orr and W. F. McKnight will go to Ardmore Monday as witnesses before the commissioner.

With the exception of colds the health of this section is very good.

The Lone Star State.
Down in Texas at Yoshum is a large goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. Mr. Haller, on one of his trips East to buy goods, said to a friend who was with him in the palace car: "Here, take one of these Little Early Risers upon retiring and you will be up early in the morning feeling good." For the "dark brown-taste, headache and that loopy feeling" with Little Early Risers are the best pills to use. Sold by all dealers.
